(e) the total amount spent on the T A. and D.A. of the Police force brought to Belgaum from other districts of the State ?

Sri VEERENDRA PATIL (Chief Minister).—

(b) and (c) Yes. Additional force to the extent necessary was indented for. Further details cannot be disclosed in public interest.

(d) Rs. 4,230 approximately.

(e) Rs. 1,022 approximately.

Sri B. P. KADAM.—What was the extent of force necessary according to the estimates of the local authorities of Belgaum then ?

†Sri VEERENDRA PATIL.—Whatever force was necessary according to the local officers, was made available to them.

Sri B. P. KADAM.—May I know from how many Districts the Police force was indented ?

Sri VEERENDRA PATIL.—I think mostly from the same District and may be from one adjoining District.

Sri B. B. SAYANAK.—Was it necessary to bring Police force from outside District when there was a Conference of the Syndicate Congress at Belgaum ?

Sri VEERENDRA PATIL.—When there is a Conference, whether it has been held by the Syndicate Congress or Indicate Congress or any other political party, it is the primary responsibility of the Government to see that law and order is maintained. Because some local parties like the Samyuktha Maharashtra Samithi and the M. E. S. had organised a 'Bandh' on that day, in order to maintain law and order, whatever force was absolutely necessary, was made available to them.

Sri B. P. KADAM.—Is it not a fact that the Chief Minister had discussion with the local Police Officer on the prior night and that it was decided that legislators from border Marathi areas should be murdered?

Sri VEERENDRA PATIL.—I do not know what to say! There is absolutely no truth and no basis for this. It is all the presumption of the hon. Member.

Sri B. P. KADAM.—Was it not a fact that the hon. Member Sri Sirdesai, who was held near the Hospital, was beaten and even when he had fallen unconscious the Police continued to beat him till he was almost in a position not even to breathe ?

Sri B. P. KADAM.—Is it not a fact that some processionists behind the Congress leaders started dancing, beating and throwing stones at the peaceful demonstrators ?

Sri VEERENDRA PATIL.—I stated that whoever had violated the Rules and the Act, action has been taken against all.

Sri B. P. KADAM.—Why is it that there is no answer to (e) ? Is it also sub judice?

Sri VEERENDRA PATIL.—I think, Sir, case under sections 147, 148. 149, 337 and 426 IPC has been chargesheeted on 23rd February 1970 in the Court of the I Class City Magistrate, Belgaum, and taken on file and some of the members are accused in this.
